

M'CARN-M'BRIDE AFFAIR TO HAVE COURT ENDING

Participants in Fight Deny Rumor of Amicable Settlement—Resigned? No!

There are many rumors to be heard in the federal building today. There are rumors that U. S. District Attorney Jeff McCarn has cabled his resignation to Washington. There are rumors that the charge against Mr. McCarn is to be dropped, on the recommendation of Claudius McBride, the complaining witness against him. And this last rumor goes even further—it reports that arrangements have been made for Senator James L. Cooke to succeed Mr. McCarn, the latter to return to Tennessee. There are rumors that Judge Clemens and Dole have wired a detailed statement of Tuesday's assault to the department of justice at Washington.

And before the day is over there will be probably a great many more rumors, for the federal building is remarkably prolific in such things now. Denials are made of some of the rumors by Mr. McCarn and by Mr. McBride, the chief denial of which comes from both of them—is that the charge is not to be dropped. Then the district attorney denies he has resigned, or will resign; and he brands the publication of the rumor that he has resigned as both untrue and unfair. He does not dispute the statement that he has sent cables to Washington, but he refuses to disclose their contents.

This morning he was asked if it were true that, through friends, he has undertaken to have the Hilo attorney drop the charge. He stated emphatically that it was not true.

"It can't be settled out of court as far as I am concerned," he declared. "I have made no effort myself, nor do I know of any to settle this matter. There is no chance of it being settled out of court—none in the world."

"You want to fight it out?" he was questioned.

"Yes, decidedly!" he replied.

"And this other report, that you have resigned, or about to resign—is that true?"

"I will say that it is unfair," he began, "to infer from the fact that I sent cable messages that I am resigning. I can't say what was in those messages, for that is a private matter. But I will say that when my resignation is in, it will come from the other end—from Washington."

"Meaning?"

"That I won't quit until I am recalled!"

Mr. McCarn's eye is still black from the blow struck him by Mr. McBride.

The latter did not wish to go into the details of the affair. He repeated the statement he made yesterday—that McCarn had called him a vile name, and that he retaliated with a blow to the eye. He declared emphatically that he would not stand for the settlement of the case out of court.

IVORY MINE FOUND ON OREGON FARM

[By Latest Mail]

EUGENE, Ore.—That the farm of O. W. Lucas, two and one-half miles south of Eugene, is a veritable cemetery of mammoths is the belief of Professor Arthur J. Collier, head of the department of geology in the University of Oregon. Since the discovery there of the tusk of a mammoth several parties of students have been conducted to the locality, with the result that two more tusks have been unearthed.

VETS OF '61 MAKE VET OF '98 SEEK NEW LAURELS

A Star-Bulletin representative had hardly squeezed through the entrance to the fair grounds at Schofield Barracks, when he noticed a khaki-clad semi-veteran eying him in what seemed to be a suspicious manner. The scribe, knowing that he was perfectly straight, went about his business, but nowhere could he find seclusion from that semi-veteran, who seemed to be his very shadow. Having stood all the "piping" that he cared for, the newspaper man turned freely on his step dogger. "Say, what in the Sam Hill (he didn't say Sam Hill) do you want?" The semi-veteran hunched his shoulders in the direction of one of the tents and started in that way with the scribe closely but suspiciously following.

"Say, young feller, I'm a veteran of the late war with Spain, and you bet your old socks that I'm going to get to the front again in this rumput that has been started down on the east coast of the greaser country, even if I have to desert to do it. Probably our Uncle Samuel will not need me for there are enough chuckleheads on the mainland to attend to the hash of those bean shooters, but just the same I want to go."

"I always felt puffed up over the fact that I had a good part in the '98 scrimmage, and as soon as I arrived here I made it a point to get acquainted with the civil war veterans in Honolulu. No, it ain't the love of country that makes me want to go to the front. It's just this way. I want to get away from the scorn and contempt and belittling of George Smith, Fred Turrill, Billie Eaton and a few more of those old boys that figured in the north vs. south misunderstanding."

MINISTER COLLAPSES WHEN KOREAN IS HANGED

[By Latest Mail]
SAN QUENTIN.—S. Y. Whang, a Korean minister, who accompanied Lee Nam Chin to the scaffold, all but collapsed when, just as he was beginning a prayer for the condemned man, Chin cried out, as the black cap was to be adjusted, that he was innocent of the crime for which he was about to pay the penalty.

As Chin's last protestation, uttered in the Korean tongue, reached Whang's ears, the minister burst into tears, ran down from the scaffold and into the condemned cell Chin had just left. There he remained until after Chin had been shot through the trap to his death.

Chin was hanged at 10:00 o'clock, and was pronounced dead 15 minutes later. He was conveyed on a casket-shaped coffin to the crematorium, where his body was cremated. His ashes were placed in a small box and sent to his family in Seoul.

The average man wants to do all the smiling for his family.

along about '61-'65. They have made my life a nightmare ever since I landed on the shores of Oahu. See that scar on my forehead? Well, that's the handshake of a Mauser bullet and with that ever in sight I thought that I could do some strutting on a "past record," and be looked on as a sort of a hero; that's the kind of stuff like, and I don't mind telling you it but just as soon as I commenced to unload a few of my "experiences" El Caney and San Juan Hill, those fellows commence to swell up and snort and pooh-pooh. Then they, very blamed one of 'em dive into inside pocket and pull out the statistics of the killed and wounded, those skirmishes, and some of the great battles of the civil war, and sh, up what I had been through as my pink teas. And that is the way has been every time I try to tell th of some bullet dodging that I did, have got to that state that I dare to open my yap about the Spanish-American trouble though perhaps I came nearer to being slaughtered than any of those squealers did. To deride me and titter at me. And it has just come to this, that no matter if I am a veteran of one of nation's wars I am still outclassed those old lads of '61, and I want, chance to go down to Vera Cruz and get shot full of rat holes in a respectable manner so that they will sit among them as one worthy.

The chap who keeps everlastingly at it accomplishes a lot of things that are not necessarily worth the effort. It's all right to pray for the things you want, but it is advisable to do a little hustling for the things you must have.

WOMAN WOULD NOT GIVE UP

Though Sick and Suffering; At Last Found Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Richmond, Pa.—"When I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was in a dreadfully rundown state of health, had internal troubles, and was so extremely nervous and prostrated that if I had given in to my feelings I would have been in bed. As it was I had hardly strength at times to be on my feet and what I did do was by a great effort. I could not sleep at night and of course felt very bad in the morning, and had a steady headache."

"After taking the second bottle I noticed that the headache was not so bad. I rested better, and my nerves were stronger. I continued its use until it made a new woman of me, and now I can hardly realize that I am able to do so much as I do. Whenever I know any woman in need of a good medicine I highly praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. FRANK CLARK, 3146 N. Tulip St., Richmond, Pa.

Women Have Been Telling Women for forty years how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored their health when suffering with female ills, this accounts for the enormous demand for it from coast to coast. If you are troubled with any ailment peculiar to women why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? It will pay you to do so. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
